

Alexandru Beldiman

Born on January 30th, 1943, Mr. Beldiman became architect diplomat of the Ion Mincu University of Architecture in Bucharest in 1967. Two years later he became member of the Union of Architects in Romania (UAR) and acted as its president during 1990 – 1999. He was also vice-president of the International Union of Architects during 1999 – 2002. In 2001, he became member of the recently founded Chamber of Architects in Romania (OAR) and in 2005 of the Town Planners' Registry of Romania. Ever since 1999, he has been president of the Simetria Foundation for Architecture and Town Planning. Professionally, Mr Beldiman acted as architect within Project Bucharest Institute during 1967 – 1993 and in 1993 became founding associate of the BBM Group office for architecture, where he currently functions as well.

Mr. Beldiman's career comprises numerous works of architecture and restoration, whose value brought him in a great number of technical committees, international juries and research projects. He has also accomplished a valuable academic activity acting as professor with the Ion Mincu University of Architecture, and also as author of numerous publications, as lecturer within international conferences and as exhibitor and editor. In 1996, he acted as Romania's curator for the Venice Biennale of Architecture and during 1994-1999 he acted as coordinator of the Bucharest Biennales of Architecture, just to point a few examples.

In recognition of his great professional achievement, Mr. Beldiman became member of honor of OAR in 2013, and received numerous awards and distinctions, such as the Duiliu Marcu Award for Architecture from Romanian Academy, the Bene Merenti medal of the Ion Mincu University of Architecture and the Faithful Service as Commander national order.
