

Mihai Pienescu

Born in Bucharest, in 1952. He studied architecture and urban planning at the “Ion Mincu” University of Architecture and Urban Planning (back then entitled Architecture Institute) in Bucharest – the Adrian Panaitescu and Constantin Iotzu studios. He earned his university degree in June 1978. Participant in the DEA Cycle “Le projet architectural et urbain” – l’Ecole d’Architecture Paris-Belville, 1993 – 1994. In March 1990, he has established in Bucharest, together with Cristina Ene, the «AD5+» architecture agency. From September 1990 he has carried out his professional activity in France. Since March 1995, he has had his own architecture studio “AAA” – atelier d’architecture et d’aménagement – Paris. He is the author and co-author of more than 60 projects and buildings constructed in Romania, France, Lebanon, Finland, Great Britain, Germany.

He is member of UAR (Union of Architects in Romania) and OAR (Chamber of Architects in Romania) – Bucharest subsidiary (Romania), OA-IDF (France).

He is also co-founder of Arhitext magazine (Bucharest, March 1990) and published articles in magazines such as Arhitectura, Arhitext, Arta, Alternativa, Observatorul Cultural, Respiro. Also, he submitted contributions to “Lexicon de arhitectură și construcții”, Technical Publishing House, Bucharest, 1980–1982.