

GHEORGHE BULAT

Born at November the 25th, 1951 in Ghidighici, Straseni district in the Soviet Social Republic of Moldova, part of USSR, son of Michael and Maria; presently, Gheorghe Bulat lives in the Republic of Moldova, in the city of Chisinau. He is a Moldovan citizen with Romanian nationality and also an orthodox. He is married.

Gheorghe Bulat graduated from the Faculty of Town Planning and Architecture of the Polytechnic Institute in Chisinau, SSR of Moldova, USSR. In 1969, he graduated from college in Ghidighici.

Between August and December 1969, he worked at the Zorile shoe factory in Chisinau, as a worker. Between May, 1970 and June, 1972, he was enrolled in the Soviet Army for the compulsory military service.

Other milestones:

1972 – Ministry of Culture, workshops for trainers in painting

1973 – 1976 Trainer in painting, the Experimental Workshop in Advertising

1980 – 1982 SSR of Moldova Science Academy, superior researcher

1982 – 1987 The Polytechnic Institute in Chisinau, Faculty of Town Planning and Architecture, student

1987 – 2002 Project Chisinau Institute of Design, architect, project chief architect

2001 – 2003 Ministry of Culture (by transfer), Chief of Department, Cultural Heritage and Restorations

2003 – 2005 SC “Axis Mundi” SRL, chief architect

2005 – present SC “ARHSTUDIOCUB”, chief architect

1996 – The Civic Merit

2002 – National Price in literature, arts and architecture

Designing religious establishments (churches in Chisinau), restorations, dwellings, and social architecture are among his numerous projects. In 2002, he received the national architecture award. Along his career, he participated in numerous competitions and architecture exhibitions, both national and international.

---